Advances in Symbolic Computation in Maple

Jürgen Gerhard[*]

We will summarize the advances in symbolic computation in Maple that were made over the past years, including polynomial arithmetic, real root isolation and polynomial system solving, series and limit computations, symbolic integration and symbolic summation, and differential equations.

---

[*]Senior Director of Research, Maplesoft